Le Murier School – parent self-nomination form to join the interim governance board

Please complete this self-nomination form outlining your previous experience which is relevant for the role and what you will bring to the Board.

All nominations must be submitted by midnight on Tuesday 21st January 2025.

At the end of the nomination period, if we receive a completed self-nomination form from more than one parent we will run an election among the Le Murier School parent community. More information about that process will be shared after 22nd January 2025.
